Homework #3

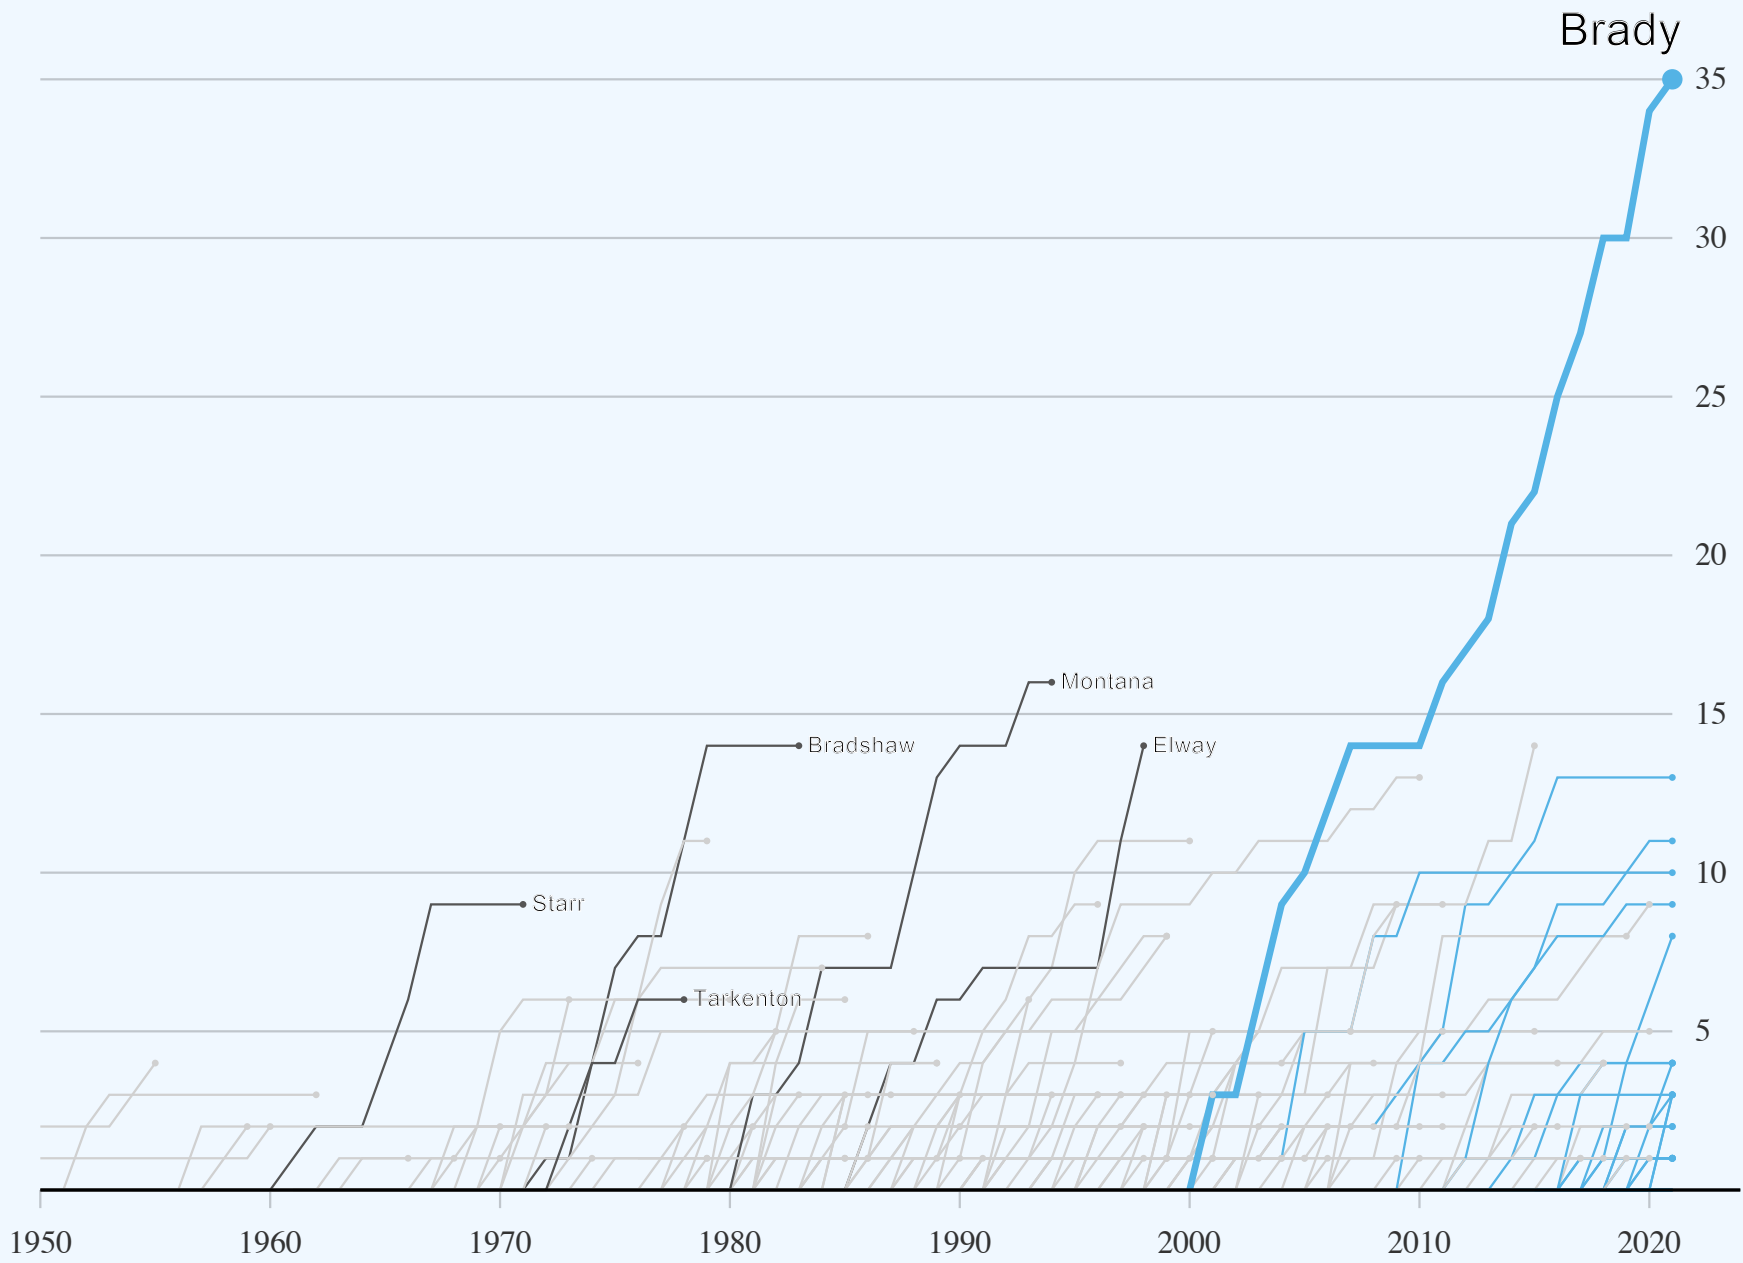

American health insurance by income in 2020

In 2020, a greater percent of previously uninsured people in the U.S. with low incomes were enrolled in Medicare or Medicaid.

Tom Brady

Tom Brady has retired from football after a 22-year career of consistent success and unmatched achievement. But his stature as the N.F.L.'s greatest quarterback may be best understood by seeing his achievements stacked up against those of hundreds of others who played the same position. The chart below does just that, comparing Brady with more than 300 other N.F.L. quarterbacks in playoff victories. Players who were still active during the 2021 season are highlighted.
